LIVE SMART

Reliance general insurance believes the world would be a better place if the same innovation that drove progress also made people feel protected.

Live Smart is not just a phrase, It's a philosophy RGI is adopting in the way it runs business and this philosophy cuts across the audiences both internal & external.

Its a change in attitude and approach to create better, smarter & innovative insurance solutions for the customers. To simplify with examples across product offerings :-

HEALTH

Smart is when the insurance company knows the customer as well as they know themselves. Which helps in creating products individually suited for the kind of person they are. So if they are leading a healthy life, their premium will not be as much as someone who's not.

MOTOR

Smart is when the insurance company acknowledges the sort of driver customers are. And rewards them for it. So if they are safe drivers, their premium will not be as much as someone who's not a safe driver.

TRAVEL

Smart is when the insurance company knows when the customer is travelling and where their travels take you. So the next time they travel, they can expect a suite of smart recommendations and tips based on the weather, duration and interests they have exhibited.

The new philosophy also transcends to the engagement with their employees & channel partners

The renewed focus is on creating an environment where efforts to do things efficiently are appreciated

They are working to provide solutions to their employees & channel partners which will comfort their professional fears and provide an edge for delivering customer service.

WELLNESS

Author and motivational speaker, Jim Rohn, once said, "Take care of your body. It's the only place you have to live."

Such a simple but impactful thought! Why not think of our body as the space we live in, rather than our home. At least that way, we will be motivated to keep it in top shape!

In keeping with this philosophy, people, at Reliance General Insurance, brings wellness programs with holistic solutions for the healthcare needs. These programs can be used by individuals and corporates, who care deeply for their employees' health.
