A Lifestyle For
THE SUAVE!

The group is revered and respected for its expertise in building modern structures across housing and commercial sectors in real estate. Till date, the group has delivered more than 50 projects in major cities, across India.

The group's acclaim is a result of its motto of working to achieve excellence, with a focus on innovation rather than blindly following trends. Among its various delivered projects are counted some of the most prominent residential as well as commercial projects, including group housing societies and shopping malls among others.

The projects delivered by the group are spread in New Delhi, Gurgaon, Noida, Greater Noida, Ghaziabad, parts of Haryana like Fardiabad & Rewari, Haridwar in Uttrakhand and Jaipur in Rajasthan.

The group has always focused on one thing; achieving customer satisfaction through an assurance of quality construction. All of their projects are driven by innovative concepts, thorough planning and timely deliveries. They are known to have fulfilled all their promises, in the form of structures that reflect sincere efforts. For this the group has always worked in tandem with the best in the industry, resulting in some proud collaborations and achievements.

With in-house architectural experts and tie-ups with reputed architect firms like, Consulting Engineering Services India Ltd., G.C.Sharma & Sons, Andleys Associates (P) Ltd., Vidyarathi & Associates, Design 'N' Design etc., the company is often seen as a game-changer, known to bring an extra edge to its efforts.

Following a belief of setting up high standards for themselves, so they can create benchmark for others, the group has made a significant progress. The group's ideology is that the present is a foundation stone for all the upcoming successes in the future. The team works hard today, but their eyes are set on tomorrow. That's why all their projects are designed to meet the requirements of the future. A popular thought within the group states that only the ones with dreams in their eyes can take the flight to success. This is the driving force behind all their ventures.

Internally, the group operates as a family of capable, experienced, qualified and technically sound individuals, working for a single aim; developing some of the best real-estate projects. This involves reputed professionals, businessmen and civil engineers with a vision to change the real estate scenario in India.

At, The Antriksh Group, the concept of planning ahead keeps them prepared for the future. It is a protocol to follow sheer research and analysis to help sense the future trends and prompt the development of various projects that meet the upcoming requirements. The group's efforts have always been lauded by peers and competitors alike. This has helped the group create landmark projects as well as innovative marketing strategies that have proven to be benchmarks for the entire industry.

The Group's upcoming projects, The Golf Address in Noida Sector-150, Andaaaz-E-Khaas in Lucknow and Eco-Homes & Urban Greek in the Delhi L-Zone are sure to change the landscape of the real estate industry, contributing in both the residential and commercial sectors.

A dream started by the group's leadership to offer easily affordable luxurious homes to the middle class has grown impressively since 1986. It has changed a lot of lives and today in 2015; it is an idol and inspiration for many. The group is applauded for its achievements, which are more than just buildings. These achievements are reflected in the smiles appearing on the customers' faces and the reputation that the group has carved for itself over the years. Leaving no stones unturned the group can be seen constantly striving to achieve excellence in the real estate sector. This journey has been possible through a collective effort to be achieved through a meeting of similarly driven individuals. However, the group is not resting on its laurels; but is pushing the boundaries constantly. After all, to change the world, you have to achieve, constantly.
