

EMERGING

AMARPRAKASH DEVELOPERS

REALIZING THE DEVELOPMENT DREAM

India is continuously liberalizing its economy, and has opened up almost all sectors, including real-estate, for foreign investors, the perception about emerging markets among investors are changing. But there are major Indian conglomerate companies which focuses on developing India to a beautiful nation. Amraprakash is a leading name in the industry, headquartered in Chennai, Tamil Nadu; they are highly acclaimed for creating residential and commercial establishments in par with quality.

The brand caters to diverse needs of the customers including home decor, property development, property maintenance service and infrastructure. Incorporated in the year 2004, under the name of as Amraprakash Developers, it took over the residential constructions in the city by storm. The company went to change its portfolio to a private limited company known as Amraprakash Developers Private Limited in the year 2007.

Ever since its inception as promoters in Chennai, Amraprakash is a noted name in both conservative and modern dimensions of real estate development. It is the massive infrastructure and innovative design that has made the real-estate wing of the Group to be amongst one of the most dignified and foremost names in the Chennai. The brand has laid strong foundations on the clear vision and systematic approach towards materialization, which has enabled them achieve great heights in the sector.

FORTIFYING INNOVATION

Given the changing trend, and considering it would continue for some years together, the real-estate industry is bringing the best of what they have to offer. Even at Amraprakash, the real-estate promoters truly believe that the constructions built at this arena has for a lifetime, as today the brand focuses on delivering innovative and quality buildings with updated technology.

They provide the best of services with the support of more than 750 dedicated professionals whose skills are at the pinnacle of the construction industry. Backing up on tough track records of over 13 years in the construction field has helped them reach a trustworthy position in the real estate market. The brand has successfully served more than 4500+ happy customers and handed over eight residential projects with the development of more than 4 million Sq.ft and another 5 million Sq.ft of residential and commercial development under construction.

The brand has always kept the essence alive by treating the customers as a part of the bigger family, where they address Amarprakash builder complaints and other customer requirements to satisfy all their needs. They believe in delivering the best to the customers, the industry and the environment we live in.

It always strives to provide “quality homes in a safer environment with world class amenities”. They are a known name in the business for the elegant style in construction that caters to Vaasthu and modern architectural philosophy. The name Amarprakash housing construction in Chennai has become popular for creating aesthetically beautiful homes which are conceptualized in accordance with the visualization of prospective home buyers.

Because of having highly exceptional range of residential properties, their projects provide the best lifestyle living options to individuals for the best prices, said general review on Amarprakash builders. They have created a niche in the real-estate sector for the on-time delivery, attractive adherence to quality norms and reasonable pricing policy. Hence, one can invest here to get good value in the form of best lifestyle homes.

QUANTUM LEAPS

- Amarprakash Developers bagged the “Leading Residential Luxury Developer of the year”
- They organized a grand key handover ceremony