

POWERFUL

SP Jain School of Global Management

IMPARTING GLOBAL BUSINESS SENSE

Taking big leaps, right from the start, raising the bar with each accomplishment, connecting the globe for its most important stakeholders is the standard at SP Jain School of Global Management.

It is a chain of world-class business schools with campuses in prominent economic locales of Dubai, Mumbai, Singapore and Sydney. In 2004, SP Jain established its first international campus in Dubai with a vision to prepare future business leaders of the world. SP Jain Singapore came into being in 2006. In 2012, SP Jain established its third international campus in Sydney, Australia, thereby, extending a great opportunity for global learning with real-world exposure to the western culture. Mumbai, the commercial hub of India, housing top national and multinational corporate offices, opened its doors for the SP Jain group and its fourth campus was set up in 2015 in Kamala Mills in Lower Parel. Following an increase in demand, another campus was established in Kurla, the next year.

GLOBAL FERVOR

All of SP Jain's campuses are strategically located in the heart of powerful business centres of the world, and buzz with all modern amenities including technologically advanced classrooms, mock trading rooms, video conferencing rooms, simulations room and Reuters terminals, state-of-the-art accommodation and healthy recreation. The institute offers Undergraduate courses in Business Administration, Business Communication and Economics. Postgraduate courses incorporate global curriculum with Master of Global Business, Global MBA and Executive MBA. A comprehensive list of Professional Technology courses include Big Data & Visual Analytics, Digital Marketing & Metrics, Machine learning, Cybersecurity, Virtual Reality and Financial Technology. A multitude of specialized courses like Global Family Managed Business and Global Owner Manager Program, Doctorate in Business Administration and a unique Partnership Postgraduate Program, Master in Global Luxury Management, also find place in the institute's list of programmes on offer.

Numerous workshops, events and visits are conducted periodically for the benefit of the students to provide them with ample global business exposure. Students also participate in Global Immersion activities that expose them to regional business practices, political beliefs and cultures.

INTRICATE BINDING

SP Jain business schools are run under a well-defined leadership hierarchy with Nitish Jain as the able leader at the top and Bharati Jain as the Director of the group. The teaching faculty at SP Jain campuses are highly qualified, joining hands from geographically different parts of the world, thereby, lending a unique global flavor to the campus. More than 74% of the core faculty members have advanced doctoral degrees and are eminent alumnus of Harvard, Cambridge and Oxford Universities. The competent faculty possesses a deep understanding of the practical implementations of the curriculum and adopts teaching methodologies that are in sync with the corporate world. The faculty members constantly strive for acquiring more knowledge by engaging themselves in high-quality research work in business domains of Economics, E-Commerce, Finance, Marketing Strategy, World Cultures and Communication. Their multinational experiences, cultural sensitivities and social presence help create a learning environment that is rich, friendly and supportive, embarking on the path of growth.

SP Jain has also come up with an “eye to eye” innovation, i2i, a centre for research, education and development in the field of Global Innovation Management.

QUANTUM LEAPS

- Ranked #1 Business School in the UAE and Top 100 World's Business Schools by The Economist
- Financial Times named its Global MBA program among world's Top 100

